

USTDA VIETNAM NATURAL GAS SECTOR BUSINESS BRIEFING

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2016 • HILTON HOUSTON POST OAK HOTEL • HOUSTON, TEXAS

The U.S. Trade and Development Agency is hosting a Business Briefing for U.S. industry with a delegation of twelve energy executives from the public, parastatal and private sectors in Vietnam.

The Business Briefing is part of a reverse trade mission to facilitate U.S. private sector participation in the implementation of natural gas projects in Vietnam, which is seeking to expand and improve the overall efficiency and performance of its power infrastructure. It will introduce Vietnamese delegates to leading U.S. firms offering power generation technologies, refurbishment goods and services, maintenance and operation services, and technologies and services related to gas pipeline facilities.

The Business Briefing will highlight market, project development and procurement opportunities in Vietnam. The delegates will share their experiences in developing their own national and regional energy markets, from both a technical and regulatory perspective.

The delegation will comprise representatives from some of the key developers and decision-makers in Vietnam, including:

- » Electricity of Vietnam (EVN) and its subsidiaries
- » Ministry of Industry and Trade (MOIT)
